

Cameras and Computers

During the year there will be a series of sessions looking at particular areas. This session covers downloading photographs from camera to computer, plus compressing photographs to be e-mailed. Other areas may be covered depending on the interests of people attending.